Instructor Falls 700 Feet

Student Parachutes To Safety As Plane Goes Out Of Control

POLAROID 1-MINUTE PHOTO

Pilot Instructor Loyal D. Carlson, civilian instructor for Texas Aviation Industries, Incorporated, fell to his death when he jumped from a T-6G aircraft trainer, from a altitude of 700 feet. The student pilot with him, 2d Lt. William A. Jolin, parachuted to safety with only minor injuries and shock.

The fatal accident occurred 7 1/2 miles East Southeast of Hondo at approximately 4:42 P. M. on Tuesday, 20 October 1953. Carlson and his student, Jolin, were doing rudder exercise stalls at an altitude of 7,000 to 8,000 feet when the aircraft got into an uncontrollable spin. Neither the instructor nor the student pilot were able to get the stick forward to break the spin. They abandoned the aircraft at about 700 feet. Carlson was thrown clear of his parachute harness.

Carlson is survived by his wife and a six months old daughter who live at 111 Erskine Place in San Antonio, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Carlson of Burlington, Iowa.

He was a captain in reserve status, and was a member of the 257th Pilot Training Group, Brooks Air Force Base, San Antonio.

Interment will be in the National Cemetery at Fort Sam Houston on Thursday, October 22.

Frank Vance To Head Boysclub Organization

At an invitation from John Sheridan, comptroller for Texas Aviation Industries, Incorporated, the mayor, representatives of various civic organizations, and several clergymen met at a luncheon in the civilian cafeteria at the base on Tuesday, October 20 to discuss the possibilities of organizing a Boysclub in Hondo.

Present at the meeting were Boysclub executives Thomas J. Craighead, San Antonio, regional director for the Southwestern Region of Boysclubs of America; Ben Singleton, executive director in San Antonio; Amado Cavazos, member of the Board of Directors in San Antonio and vice chairman of the Texas Area Council; James B. Roark, vice president and a past president of Boysclub in San Antonio; Fernando Pena, executive director of Boysclub in Laredo; and Joe Mora, assistant director in charge of vocational work in the Laredo club.

In the absence of Hondo's mayor, Frank X. Vance represented the City. Other local representatives were the Reverend Harold Ehlinger, Chaplain Wade K. Tomme, Charles Larkin, Buddy Paige, Gail Eldridge, and Lillian G. Brucks.

Cavazos read an editorial on "God Bless Little Boys" which the Anvil Herald (August 21 issue) had reprinted. "Juvenile delinquency drops in a town where Boysclub operates," said Cavazos and continued, "Boysclub reaches the need of active boys from eight to fifteen years of age. Health and body building, a quiet place for reading and study, discovering aptitudes and developing skills and leadership, are some of the aims of the Club."

After hearing from the others present, Sheridan said that he could not take active part but would share in the financial backing of the Club. Frank Vance was elected as temporary chairman. He is calling a meeting on Monday, November 2, at 7:30 P. M. in Lions Club Hall, to which the clergy of Hondo, all church organizations, all civic, school, and veteran organizations, and all Latin American organizations will be invited.

Former Hondon Dies In Traverse, Mich.

News of the death of Howell W. Canon, which occurred at his home at Traverse, Mich., recently, has been received here by his uncle, Walter A. Mask. Deceased was born at Livingston, Texas, June 12, 1902, the eldest son of the late Job Canon and wife, and spent his early boyhood in Hondo where his father was engaged in the grocery business.

After serving an enlistment of two and a half years as a chief machinist mate in the Seabees during World War II, he was discharged at the navy base in Traverse; and later, on July 6, 1946, married Miss Evelyn Radcliffe who survives him. He is also survived by three sisters, two of whom reside in California and one in Massachusetts. Two brothers had preceded him in death.

He was a 32nd degree Mason and member of the Eastern Star and White Shrine of his home town and was buried under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge.

The deceased was a maternal grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Mask, long-time highly respected citizens of this community. Both the grandparents and the parents sleep in Hondo's Oakwood cemetery.

MRS. MAPLES JOINS STAFF OF HERALD AS ADVERTISING MANAGER

Mrs. Elizabeth Maples recently joined the staff of The Anvil Herald as advertising manager. She is shown verifying Sam Latham's claim to bigger and better dahlias. This one measured better than twelve inches across and was a beautiful shade of lavender.

Mrs. Maples was Elizabeth Love prior to her marriage and hails from Fort Worth although she was born in San Antonio and proud of it. She received her education in the Fort Worth schools and then received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Texas State College for Women at Denton.

Until the time of her marriage to Lee Maples, who is crew chief at Texas Aviation Industries, Incorporated, Mrs. Maples was advertising manager for Sanger's Department Store in Dallas. After her marriage, she accepted the job of advertising manager for Leonard Brothers in Fort Worth from 1935 to 1941. Since 1948, Mrs. Maples has been advertising manager for Lintz Department Stores, Dallas.

The Maples have two sons, Lea teaches music in the public schools of El Paso and Cam is attending Hondo Elementary.

Mrs. Maples is active in the Parent Teachers Association at Hondo Elementary, where she serves as a room mother for one of the third grades. She is a member of the First Baptist Church and teaches a Sunday School class of junior girls.

The Anvil Herald feels fortunate in acquiring Mrs. Maples as a member of the staff and takes pleasure in introducing her to the business people of Hondo.

REV. WINDECKER NEW PASTOR OF ST. PAUL'S

The Rev. K. Windecker, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church for the past ten years, submitted his resignation on Sunday, October 11, after the morning services and announced that he is accepting a call to St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Hondo, Texas.

The congregation, stunned by the announcement, reluctantly accepted the resignation by a rising vote of thanks to the pastor, in recognition of the years of faithful service he had rendered to the Church and the community.

Mr. William Miculka, speaking for the congregation, in well chosen words expressed the reluctance with which the resignation was received but wished the pastor God's blessing in his new parish.

Rev. Windecker summed up his feelings with the remark: "It is with a heavy heart that I make this request. The people of Moulton received us with open arms ten years ago. This same spirit of Christian fellowship was our joy during my ten years as your pastor and I hope and pray that it will never diminish until we shall be joined again in the blessed hereafter under the shepherding care of the Chief Shepherd and Bishop of our souls."

Pastor Windecker and family came to Moulton on July 1, 1943. On the following Sunday, July 4, he was installed by the District President, Rev. E. A. Sagebiel, in Zion's Lutheran at Moulton, Evangelical Lutheran at Witting and Zion's Lutheran at Braslau.

During the years of Pastor Windecker's ministry in Moulton, the following ministerial acts were performed: 133 baptisms, 136 confirmations, 249 marriages and 118 funerals. Many spiritual blessings came to both pastor and congregation during these years, including a spirit of unity which has welded the congregation together in Christian fellowship.

In addition to the spiritual growth, the years of this relationship of pastor and congregation were marked by numerous improvements to the physical property of the Church. The interior of the parish house was remodeled and redecorated.

However, the outstanding accomplishment was the recent remodeling and redecoration of the Church building and the installation of a Hammond organ.

On January 15 of this year, the Pastor's family experienced the misfortune of losing its beloved wife and mother, Mrs. Frieda Windecker. This bereavement became one of the chief motives which contributed to the Pastor's resolve to accept the call from Hondo, to be removed from the familiar scene of such poignant memories.

The four children of Rev. Windecker are Dr. L. J. Windecker of Lake Jackson, Texas, Rev. A. K. Windecker, pastor of Gethsemane Lutheran Church of San Antonio, Roland T. Windecker, serving as a electrical engineer with the Dow Chemical Company of Freeport, Texas, and Miss Anita Windecker, instructor of music at Texas Lutheran College in Seguin. Anita is at present pursuing her musical career in New York City.

The pastor expects to leave Moulton on or about November 16. Well wishes and Godspeed from the members of his congregation and friends in the community, will accompany him to his new home and field of labor. He shall be greatly missed here. —The Moulton Eagle, Moulton.

My old friend Ed Livermore of Oklahoma, writes a column for his paper which is interesting. Especially when he borrows an idea from my column, and that makes me feel that my judgment is pretty good. So today I would like to run his comments on the release case which express my own feelings.

All conversations concerning kidnappers of the Greenleaf usually start with "What do you suppose they will do with the kidnapers?"

Here is the answer suggested by John O'Donnell of the New York Daily News:

"Cruel and unusual punishment for the criminals as prolonged as medical skill can accomplish, and as ferocious and merciless as the ancient torture can conceive, imposed publicly before all criminals and suspects in Yankee Stadium and brought by TV to every reformatory, jailhouse, and parole-board hearing room, might still in others some restraining force of inevitable punishment. The bleeding hearts and do-gooders naturally will come up with sob-sister cries that this is humane and terrifying punishment to all of which we say, 'No, it is important. Not so much, perhaps, as its infliction—publicly, brazenly, and in most gory detail.'"

NEW BUSINESS OPENS IN HONDO THURSDAY

The Food Market will handle a complete variety of frozen and fresh foods and vegetables, meats of all kinds, and will carry a complete line of groceries.

W. J. Schweers started his 4-H Club work in 1951 when he selected 2 hogs to be fed out for the Medina County Junior Fat Stock Show. In the two following years he has also fed out hogs or a similar purpose. In the 3 years, W. J. has fed out 8 barrows that had a total weight of 383 pounds that brought a gross of $565.07. From this amount he had an expense of $276.07 which left a net profit of $289.00 for the 3 years.

In 1952, he received through a foundation a registered Hampshire gilt. From this gilt he raised two litters of pigs in 1953. The first litter of pigs averaged 45 4-5 pounds at 56 days of age. The second litter of 7 pigs averaged 47.9 pounds for a similar period, or a total of 334 pounds.

St. Louis Comets Streak Past S. I. Rebels, 28-12

By Gerald Kempf

CASTROVILLE—The St. Louis
Comets streaked past the Schreiner Institute Rebels, 28 to 12, here last Thursday night in a Southwest Acedemic League game. The win left the Comets with a season's record of three wins and two losses.

The Comets, led by the sparkling running of Mark Kempf and Harold Keller, scored once in the first period, once in the second, and added 2 more in the final stanza, while Schreiner tallied once in the first and once in the fourth quarter.

Schreiner received the opening kick-off and quickly marched 70 yards to their first score. The scoring drive ended as Jerry Brieger went 13 yards around left end for the score. A plunge for extra point failed and Schreiner held a 6 to 0 lead. But the Comets came bounding back and on the second play after the Rebel kickoff Speedy Mark Kempf circled his left end and scampered 49 yards to tie the score. Lynn Tschirhart put the Comets ahead, 7 to 6, by booting his first extra point of the night.

Then in the second quarter the Comets were determined to lengthen their one point lead. Mark Kempf again went over from 20 yards out but the TD was nullified because of a penalty. Three players later, however, Harold Keller circled his right end for the score. Tschirhart added the extra point and the score at halftime stood 14 to 6 in favor of the Comets.

After the entertaining half-time ceremonies which were put on by the St. Louis Pep Squad the game got rolling once more. Both teams fought to a deadlock in the third quarter but in the fourth, Schreiner added their final score to come within two points of the Comets' lead. This time Steve Wilhelm raced 21 yards to pay dirt to climax an 80 yard drive.

Then the Comets scoring machine again swung into action.
Kempf intercepted a Rebel pass and returned it 25 yards to the Schreiner 21 yard line. Two plays later Harold Keller blasted off tackle for 13 yards and the score.
Lynn Tschirhart again converted.
The Comets final score came late in the final period. Maurice Etter, Comet Halfback, intercepted another Rebel pass and returned it to the Schreiner 20 only to have a clipping penalty move the ball back to the 49 yard line.
Mark Kempf went into action then as he ripped off a 41 yard first down to the 8 yard line and 2 plays later he scored on a 6 yard end run. Lynn Tschirhart added his fourth consecutive extra point of the night and minutes later the game ended with the Comets leading 28 to 12.

This Friday, October 23, the Comets will journey to San Antonio to meet the power packed Edgewood Red Raiders, who, up to date, have a 5 game winning streak tucked under their belt.
This should prove to be a good game and everybody is invited to follow and to support the Comets.

Score by quarters:

Schreiner 6 0 0 6—12
St. Louis 7 7 0 14—28
Scorers: Schreiner, TD's: Jerry Brieger 1, Steve Wilhelm 1.
St. Louis, TD's: Mark Kempf
2, Harold Keller 2. PAT's: Lynn Tschirhart 4.

You'll get more than you expect feature after feature, Ford matches the finest...

fine car ride... fine-car build... and fine-car V-8 GO!

Check these fine car features that are yours when you buy a Ford, the one fine car in the price field. You get glass area galore... most in Ford's field. You get more usable space than in any other low-priced car. Seats are foam-rubber-cushioned both front and rear. You get such Ford advances as convenient Center-Fill Fueling and suspended clutch and brake pedals. But here are the reasons why Ford is worth more when you buy it and when you sell it, too!

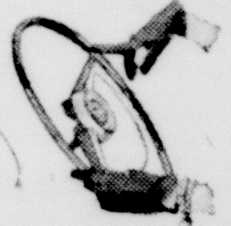

For Six power

Ford in its field offers you a fine-car high-compression V-8 engine... the result of Ford's advance building more V-8's than all other cars combined. And Ford's high-compression, Six is the most modern Six in the industry. Both engines have Ford's exclusive Automatic Power Pilot which squeezes the last drop of power out of every drop of gasoline.

Up to 80% less road shock

Ford has reduced front end road shock (the kind you notice most) up to 80%. And by a perfect teaming-up of rear springs, diagonally-mounted rear shock absorbers and tailored-to-weight front springs, Ford has proved that a car can ride smooth as silk without gas-eating extra weight.

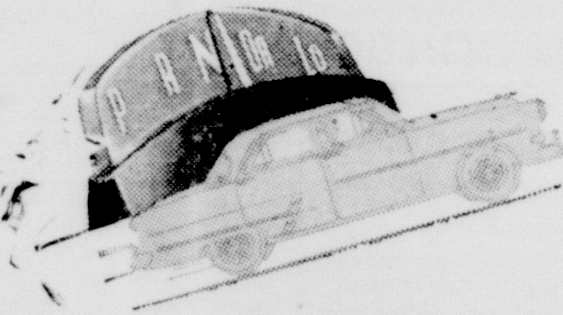

Master-Guide power steering

Ford Master-Guide is the last word in power steering. It does up to 75% of the steering work for you when you need it... yet it leaves you with a natural feel of steering on the straight-away. And it helps you control the car on rough, rutted roads. Available on all V-8 models.

Built like the finest

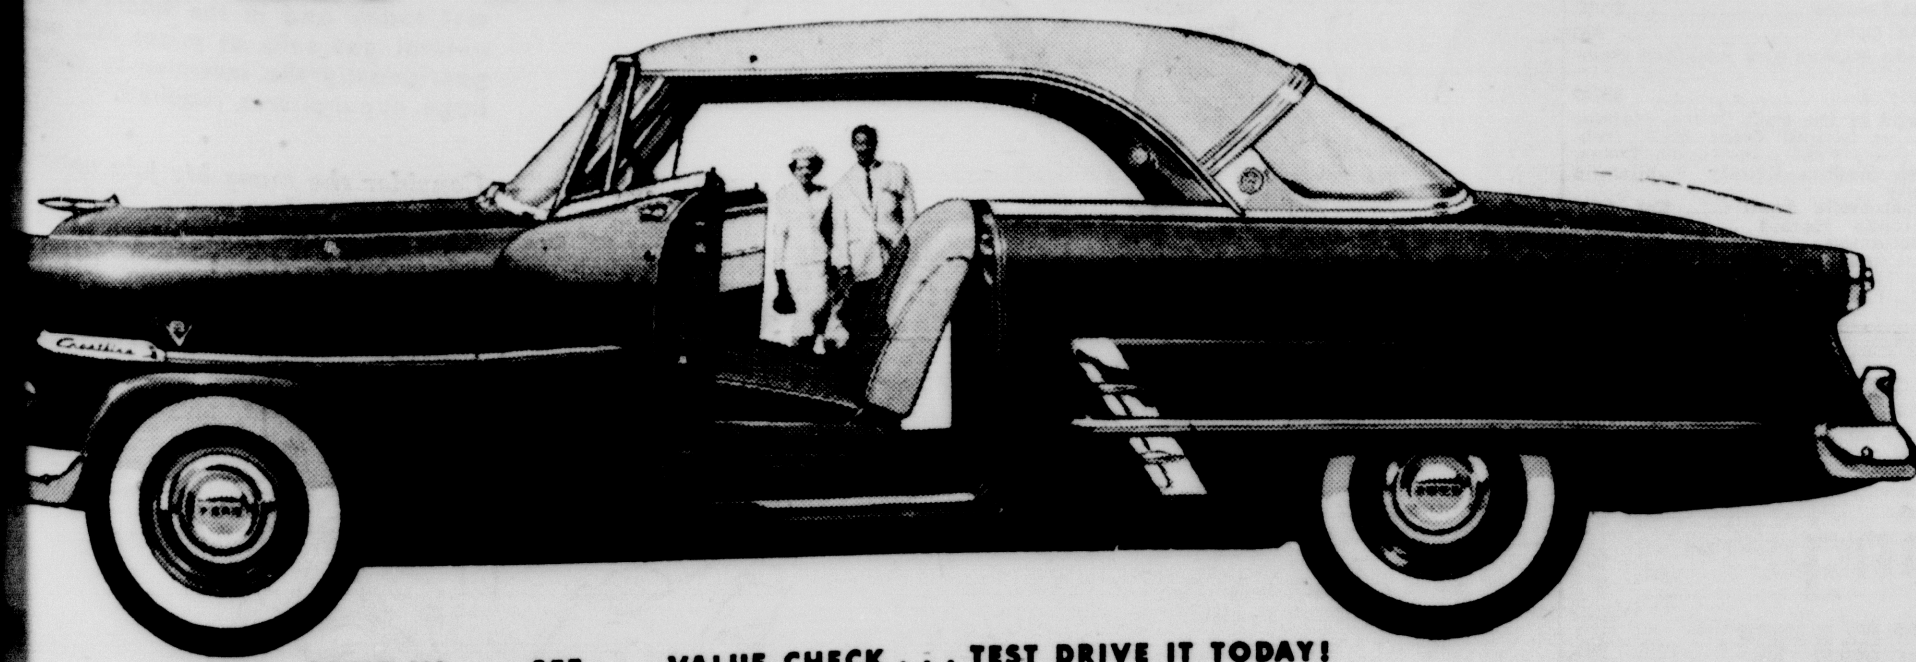

Ford's hull-tight body is sealed against water, dust and draft. Body panels are made of steel of the same quality and thickness as that used in the costliest cars. Ford's rugged box-section frame has five strong cross members including a special K-bar member which adds extra twist resistance... gives longer car life.

Fordomatic Drive

It's the finest, most versatile of all automatic drives... combines the smoothness of a fluid torque converter and the "Go" of automatic mechanical gears. Ford also offers you Overdrive and Conventional drive.

score. They just couldn't make it and the ball went to Devine on the 5 yard line. Devine tried once with no gain, picked up 5, and then Pettibon kicked out to the 34. Once again it looked as if Hondo was off when Williams rolled up 20 yards for a first down. Monte Williams failed to gain and then tore around right end for 7, but a pass from Williams to Alderete resulted in a 3 yard loss. Another pass from Morin to Williams picked up 5, but that wasn't quite enough and Devine took over on dangerous territory.

The Owls threw Devine for a 2 and a 3 yard loss when the Warhorses punted out to the 31 yard line to relieve the pressure. Morin picked up 2, Williams got 1, and then Morin's attempted pass resulted in a fumble which was recovered by Hondo but cost the Owls 10 yards. Schweers kicked to Devine's 20 yard line. Pettibon failed to gain. Dubose picked up 15 for a first down. Busby got 9 and Dubose pushed ahead for another first down on the next play. The third quarter ended with Devine still out in front, 14-0.

Dubose picked up 4, but the next play saw Devine penalized 5 yards for offside play. A pass from Jones to Dubose misfired and Hondo recovered on the 42 yard line. Dubose was helped out of the game with an injured leg.

Schweers handed off to Alderete for 6 and then Schweers was stopped on the line. Alderete picked up 12 for a first down on the 40. Williams got 5 and Schweers got 3 twice to register first on the 26, and the pass from Schweers to Alderete gained 6. Devine stiffened up and held Hondo for no-gain and took over on the 25 where Busby took a pitchout and went all the way for the final score. Davis again converted. The game ended with three more plays and the score stood at 21-0.

Kathleen Lamon Crowned Queen Of Jewels

By Mrs. Glenn Vaughn

LACOSTE—The weather was good, and the large crowd attending the community carnival on the LaCoste Public School ground on Saturday evening, October 17, was in a jolly holiday mood. The carnival was sponsored by the services clubs in the LaCoste community, and the proceeds from the sausage supper, the concessions, and the coronation are to be used in purchasing curtains and scenery for the stage in the new gymnasium-auditorium.

The evening's festivities closed with the coronation of the Queen of Jewels at the Court of Precious Stones. The stage was decorated under the direction of Warren Brown, faculty member, to represent the treasures that Ali Baba stole from the thieves in the story of "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves." A very spectacular display of simulated jewels was arrayed on the stage as the Court of Precious Stones assembled, each duchess and princess representing a jewel.

Kathleen Lamon, a junior in high school, was crowned Queen of Jewels by her escort, Franklin Bohl. The defeated candidates for queen, Betty Mechler, Shirley Bohl and Patricia Jungman were princesses in the Royal Household. Their escorts were, respectively, Sylvan Magnold, Bobby Mangold, and James Biediger.

Other members of the court and their escorts were: Lenor Fierros and Antonio Costillo; Clara Stine and Gregory Benke; Barbara Rose Benke and Patrick Ahr; Benelde Martinez and David Lopez; Olga Hinojosa and Henry Lopez; Joyce Ladner and Robert Hargroder; Alice Moreno and Fred Balderrama of the junior high and the elementary school; Karen Jungman and Jerome Hitzfelder; Virginia Reichert and Donnie McAskill; Mary Kathryn Rihn and Calvin Hutzler; Marlene Salzman and B. T. Keller, of the high school.

A group of young entertainers of the San Antonio Recreation Department under the direction of Misses Martha Dickey and Bertha Almaguez presented a program of artistic Spanish dances for the Queen of Jewels and her Court.

Constance Koehler played the piano for the processional and the recessional marches. Preceding the program, Mrs. Alice Ahr entertained the assembling audience with several piano selections. Wayne Ahr and Anthony Rihn, dressed in oriental costume, guarded the treasures on the dimly lighted stage before the entrance of the Royal Court. Virginia Hutzler provided the fanfares between the parts of the procession; Miss Lula Lee McMeans wrote the script and directed the coronation; A. W. Ahr read the script and made the necessary announcements; N. J. Knopp and James Geiger manipulated the spot lights.

Whatcha Column

By Sally Brucks

Seems a lot of stuff gets in my column that nobody knows exactly where else to put - or why it was ever thought of, in the first place - so this week, Personal Appearance will be conspicuous by its absence and we'll throw every little bit of left-over news in the what-do-you-call-'em! If you can think of a better name for the column, tell me.

This way, I can ramble along at random on any subject that happens to come my way and I won't be hard-pressed for personals. What I'm actually admitting to is that I'm a trifle lazy and if news about people is scarce, woman-like, I can gab about anything without much effort.

WC

Each Friday finds me shoving Sunday's ox in the ditch by leaving Hondo for the weekend. Then, Sunday afternoon, when I arrive home to the weekly chores and get busier than a thousand-leg centipede lacing up his shoes, I tell myself I'll stay home for the next weekend for sure. Not this one, though, because plans are already made for departure Friday evening, but maybe next weekend—?

The Castroville Wildcats were turned under 21-0 here Friday night by the Brackettville Tigers. This leaves the Wildcats with 3 wins and 2 losses and a standing in the 32B League with 1 win and 1 loss.

The Tigers racked up 14 points early in the first period. R. Luna plunged over for the first touchdown and Filimon Talamantes raced 35 yards for the second. Flavio Talamantes converted for both extra points.

R. Luna scored again on a spectacular 85 yard run in the third period and Flavio Talamantes again converted.

The Wildcats will play Lytle here Oct. 23 in a non-conference game.

GAS WELL?

You can... if you have a lease or own to drill on; if you've made geological surveys that indicate it's worth trying; you have the money and fortitude to embark on a "wildcat" venture that is successful only one time out of nine on a national average.

Members of the natural gas "team"—producers, pipeliners and distributors—the wells and build the great steel pipelines, compressor stations and distribution facilities to make this matchless fuel available for your home. They're taking the risks, and spending the money.

And it costs big money to assure you dependable natural gas service 24 hours every day. But that responsibility will be met, today and in the future, so long as natural gas sells at prices that provide the industry the incentive to make the huge expenditures required.

Consider the many big jobs natural gas does in your home. We think you'll find it's worth every cent you pay for it... and then some!

A LESSON IN SOCIALISM

teacher in the public schools, I at the socialist-communist idea of "from each according to his ability and to each according to his need" is now generally accepted question to explain the fallacy in this I sometimes try this approach pupils:

When one of the brighter or hard-working pupils makes a grade of 95, I suggest that I take away 20 points and give them to a student who made only 55 points on his test. Each would contribute according to his ability and — since both would be passing mark — each would be according to his need. After I have done the grades of all the other pupils in this fashion, the result is usually a "passing" grade of between 60 — the minimum needed for graduation — or for survival. Then I speculate to the pupils as to the probable result if I actually used the socialistic method for grading papers.

Just the highly productive pupils and they are always a minority in the class as well as in life — would soon be an incentive for producing. Why not make a high grade if part of it goes to someone else?

Second, the less productive pupils — a majority in school as elsewhere — would, for a time, be relieved of the necessity to study or to produce. This socialist-communist system would continue until the high producers had sunk — or had been driven down — to the level of the low producers. At that point, in order for anyone to survive, the "authority" would have no alternative but to begin a system of compulsory labor and punishments against even the low producers. They, of course, would then complain bitterly, but without understanding.

Finally I return the discussion to the ideas of freedom and enterprise — the market economy — where each person has freedom of choice, and is responsible for his own decisions and welfare.

Gratifyingly enough, most of my pupils then understand what I mean when I explain that socialism — even in a democracy — will eventually result in a living death for all except the "authorities" and a few of their favorite lackeys.

Hunting Season Delayed In Colorado

AUSTIN — The Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission said the recent hunting season delay in Colorado from woods fire danger might serve as a reminder to Texans of the purpose of a new state law.

This law which was passed by the last Legislature authorizes closing of hunting seasons where the fire hazard is considered critical.

In Colorado the Game and Fish Commission, empowered in that state to administer this law, postponed opening of the big game hunting season because the wooded areas were too dry.

Many Texans were affected by the Colorado decree since they had planned vacations to conform to the October 15 opener on the western slope and the October 20 opener in eastern Colorado. The postponed seasons will begin October 24 and November 1.

SECO PHILOSOPHER WANTS

Scientists To Develop Chemical To Make Weeds Taste Good To Cows

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has a passably good idea this week, but we don't look for anything to come of it.

Dear editor:

I know that scientists are pretty busy these days, one set working on making the hydrogen bomb more deadly, another set working on making it less; others working on higher octane gasoline to make cars run faster, others working on ways of slowing motorists down; one group working on better bomb-proof shelters, another on guided missiles that'll penetrate the same shelters; but I was wondering why some scientists don't spend a little more time working on a problem I have in mind.

I have about given up hopes of the experts working out a breed of cattle that can thrive on weeds and thistles, but I have not given up the weeds and thistles.

It doesn't seem to make any difference how dry it gets, weeds and thistles keep right on growing. They seem to have a secret of being at home on this earth, regardless of the weather, and I would like to see some scientist get to work on them.

What I want that scientist to do is figure out a chemical you can spray on weeds and thistles to make them taste good to a cow.

I was talking to a cattleman the other day and he said he at least had the satisfaction of knowing his cows were paid for, but another one ruined his day by pointing out a paid-for cow can be a liability the same as a mortgaged one, on account of they won't last more than a few days without something to eat. With a cow worth 6 cents a pound, and hay 1 cent a pound, anybody can figure how small a haystack she has to eat before she's eaten her worth in feed, and two days after she finishes she'll still be as hungry as she was when she started.

So instead of scientists working on a chemical you can spray on weeds to kill em, I'd like to have one you can spray on, on the same principle of salad dressing on lettuce, and the cows will go for em.

I don't know what the nutrition count on a weed is, but it gets the same sunshine and grows out of the same earth cultivated plants do and I notice cattle will eat 'em when they're young and tender. Seems to me there ought to be a chemical maybe left over as a by-product from an atom bomb or a nylon dress which scientists could use to spray on weeds and make them come out as desirable as a green salad. People are always talking about finding new grasses, but I'd rather figure out a way to use the stuff we already got.

I just noticed one of my cows finish off 15 cents worth of hay.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

SOME RANDOM THOUGHTS

ON PEOPLE AND THINGS

AS HE VIEWS THE

PASSING SCENE

SHALL WE GO SOCIALIST ALL THE WAY?

America has fallen upon strange times when a man, holding a temporary political appointment at the hands of the faction now in control of governmental affairs in Washington, can tell some millions of American farmers how many acres of their own land they can plant in a certain crop.

Yet that is what Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson has done to the cotton farmers of America, and that with as arrogant self-assurance as ever any Caesar proclaimed his edict.

The gentleman has issued an order setting the 1954 cotton marketing quota at 10,000,000 bales, a reduction of 36 per cent below this year's estimated production.

To achieve this reduction in production in bales, there must be a cut in the acreage planted from this year's 24,600,000 to 17,910,448 acres in 1954.

Benson concedes the reduction will mean "very severe adjustments" for cotton farmers but he offers no suggestion for the utilization of the nearly seven million acres made idle in so far as cotton production is concerned.

His only consolation to the farmer thus deprived of his freedom of choice in how he uses his own land is the assurance that it is "the only alternative to over-production and price-depressing surpluses."

He makes no allowance for a possible reduction through crop failure from drought, insect ravages, or what not!

He even denies the cotton farmer the poor privilege of choosing for himself between enduring the possible evil of over-production or risking other evils he knows not of.

True the farmers will be permitted to vote on December 15 on whether to accept the strict new quotas.

But, with all due respect for this gesture at democracy, it will make little difference to the individual farmer's material welfare whether his operations are controlled by a majority of his fellows—who do not see as he does—or by a dictator in temporary power at Washington.

Either process subjects the individual to control over what is his own business by over-lordship which should have no place in our American way of life.

This proposal to make it appear—in the event a majority vote favors—that the plan is of the farmers' own free choice is all the more repugnant because of the threat held over them that unless they do agree "federal price supports will be cut from 90 to only 50 per cent of the so-called parity price."

"You must, or else" is carrying "paternalism" pretty far!

All adverse considerations to the whole plan and procedure are brushed aside by the Commissioner in his assertion that he is acting "in strict accordance with the legislative provisions and have no authority to adjust or change the quota level or the acreage allotment specified to produce cotton at the quota level."

Respect for law as made and provided is commendable in all persons and on all occasions.

Now, obviously, an enactment not made into law as provided is not in actuality a law.

Let's view the procedure from its constitutional aspects—the only authority that can rightfully prevail.

"The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or the people."

When that was enacted such a procedure as the farmer being told from Washington what or how much of a given crop he might plant on his own land had not been dreamed of in any farmer's wildest of nightmares.

So far, no State has assumed any such authority.

Neither can it be said that all the people have called for such a referendum.

And if it can be said that because any considerable group acquiesces in being made the special pets(?) of a paternal government makes the act good and enforceable law which the Federal government must enforce, then the government must take all the consequences.

Now when a man is deprived of the free use of his land by government decree what becomes of that constitutional decree that: "Nor shall any person be deprived of liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation?"

If by any twisting or stretching of the theory of "implied powers" can give the government authority to enforce such an arbitrary decree as will forbid the farmer's free use of his own property, surely no one would deny that the Fifth Amendment, both in its letter and spirit, guarantees him "just compensation" for the use of the land, in his own way, of which he is thus deprived.

Is the government going to pay the farmer directly a rental that will be a just compensation for that which it proposes to deprive him?

If we must go socialist let's go all the way; if not all the way, "let's lay off" altogether.

What do you say?

Shall we go all out for socialism?

Or should we go back to the democracy of the founding fathers?

WE REMINISCE

With the death of Joe Haby, which occurred at Altinheim, the Hermann Sons' home for the aged near Comfort, on October 9, 1953, there passed away one among the last—if not the last—survivors of a now almost forgotten era in Southwest Texas.

Between the time when General Woll led the last retreat of armed Mexican soldiers from Texas, following their last brush with Texas rangers on the creek some six miles northwest of where the town of Hondo now stands, and the advent of the railroad in 1881, there gradually grew up a considerable trade between the Texans and the Mexican settlements along the Rio Grande.

This trade grew in volume as settlements sprang up westward from San Antonio and a tremendous need for transportation facilities was developed.

The only answer to that need was animal-drawn vehicles, and the ox-drawn wooden-wheeled carts eventually gave way to the greater carrying capacity of the iron-tired wagon, drawn by stronger and faster stepping mules.

The bigger and the stronger the wagon, the more mules could be hitched to it and the bigger the load that could be transported.

To better assure the safety of both men and materials and to afford mutual assistance in time of need, the teamsters usually traveled in groups or caravans called by them wagon-trains.

For roads they had wagon trails across the then prairie, following the lay of the land which afforded easiest access to available fords along the water courses and avoiding as much as possible the steep grades along their route.

The country, of course, was wide open and they stopped and camped wherever and whenever nightfall or the exigencies of the occasion prompted.

Mr. Haby joined in this business when a young man as a teamster; how long he followed it or whether he remained in it until the advent of the railroad in 1881 put an end to it, we are not informed.

On one occasion, he recounted to the writer the story of one experience.

The wagon train with which he was connected some time in the 1870's was caught in one of Texas' freak downpours of rain as it was returning from a trip west. They made a forced drive to get to the Rothe hill just west of town in order to have the protection of high ground.

Shortly after striking camp, they were startled by a cry for help coming from the low ground just back of where the Drive-in theatre now stands.

The teamsters responded to the call and found a lone Mexican, driving a team of small ponies, stranded in deep water and both he and his team in imminent danger of drowning.

Their timely arrival and assistance saved both the man and the team.

The rain poured down far into the night, but the elevation of

Hondo Owls Bow To Devine's Warhorses, 21-0

Devine's Warhorses kicked the feathers out of Hondo's Owls with a 21-0 game here last week. Busby kicked off for Devine. Schweers ran the kick back 13 yards. A fumble gave Devine the ball on the Hondo 36 yard line. Devine's Maurice Pettibon picked up 5 yards and Buddy Jones pitched out to John Dubose who got away for 13 yards before being forced out of bounds on the 20 yard line. Dubose picked up another 5 and then it was Devine's turn to play butterfly, turning the ball back to Hondo on the 15. Williams got 8 off tackle. Johnnie Morin picked up a yard and a half, and Hondo punted to the 40 yard line. Dubose swept around right end for 15 yards and then a Jones to Dubose combination clicked again for 6 yards around the left end. Then came another fumble.

Hondo was unable to gain in the next series and punted to the 38. Dubose passed to Pettibon who scampered around right end for 17 yards and a first down. Dubose was stopped on the line. Busby picked up 4, and following a pass attempt, Devine punted to the 17 yard line. Johnnie Morin passed to Monte Williams who made 26 yards for a first down on the 45. Morin picked up 5 yards and Willie Alderete fumbled on the next play giving Devine the ball in the middle of the field. The quarter ended with Devine holding the ball on Hondo's 35 yard line.

Dubose shoved a pass to Pettibon for 2 yards and Jones flipped to Busby for 16 and a first down on the 20 yard marker. Busby made the 20 yards but a penalty nullified the goal and set Devine back 15 yards for clipping. From the 28 yard line, Busby passed to Jones for 19 yards. Jones made an outstanding catch. Busby went around left end to the 4, and then drew first blood with a TD. Louis Davis converted with a place kick which set up the score, 7-0.

Busby kicked off for Devine and Glenn Schweers received it on the 35. Schweers threw to Alderete who picked up 3 yards around right end then a back field in motion penalty cost the Owls 5 yards. Following an incomplete pass, Schweers punted to the 40. Dubose promptly paced off 15 yards for a first down. Jones to Pettibon clicked for 30 yards bringing up another first down on the 15 yard stripe and the Owls threw Pettibon for a 1 yard loss and Busby fell back another two yards. Dubose picked up the loss plus another 5, then, Pettibon threw to Busby who made the next TD. Davis again added an extra point making the score 14-0.

Monte Williams took the kick-off on the 5 yard line and batted his way out to the 26. Schweers to Alderete was good for 5 yards, and following 2 more pass attempts, Schweers punted 41 yards to the Devine 39. Buddy Simmons returned the favor after three no-gaining plays and Hondo took over on the 50 yard line as the half ended, 14-0.

The half-time performances featured a salute to the Air Force by Hondo's band, while the stumble-bum drummer from Devine drew more laughs than have been heard in many a day during the half-time show.

Crystal City Set To Get Owls For First Time

Coach George Mabe and his Crystal City Javelinas are sharpening their teeth to dine on Owls when the two teams clash Friday night. The Hondo Owls have whipped the Crystal City team for fourteen consecutive years and the Javelinas are more determined than ever to scatter Owl feathers all over the place this year.

Sharpening talons and beaks for future games, the Owls still have Carrizo Springs, Cotulla, Pearsall and San Felipe ahead of them. Carrizo Wildcats edged out the Cotulla Cowboys, 13-12 last week with Harold Holden out in front with the scoring and passing. Pearsall bowed to Uvalde 39-20 last week, which compares with the 27-6 score Uvalde gave Hondo earlier in the season. San Felipe lost to Dilley in their last game, 7-0.

Owl Coach Tom Bridges rates the Javelinas as a senior club this year. They have lost one game, and whipped the Sabinal Yellowjackets 38-6 last week. The Owls took the Yellowjackets 26-0 in the September 25 game. With the Javelinas hoping for the unusual, the game Friday night should be an interesting one to watch.
